Subject: KULYK, Andrei of 45 Market St. New York, N.Y. Telephone 233-7344

Source: RK

Date: 21 Oct. 1969

1. Subject is approx. 21 years old, a student in New York city. He lives alone at the above address. His parents live in Brooklyn. Address unknown, but their telephone number is EV 8-6379. He is approx. 5'9" tall, 135 lbs, recently shaved his head, but his hair is growing back in. He wears a mustache, glasses. He speaks good Ukrainian with an eastern Ukrainian dialect.
2. Subject has been in contact with members of the Ukrainian SSR mission to the U.N. for more than a year. He was acquainted with KOCHUBEY, who introduced him to BATIUK, KRAVETZ and KHMIL. Subject has also been in contact with Ukrainian communists who have their offices on 4th St. in Manhattan.
Subject Source said that all the members of the Ukrainian mission were interested in Ukrainian emigre youth, what their relations were to the older Ukrainians, and emigre parties. They are particularly interested in the views of young Ukrainians to the current situation in the Ukrainian SSR.
3. According to Subject, BATIUK is interested primarily in Ukrainian students in New York and their activities. KHMIL who works not for the Ukrainian mission, but rather for the Secretariat is interested in CECUS and the outcome of the congress which took place in Munich, summer 1969. KHMIL is characterized by Subject as a Stalinist, married and lives in an apartment in New York. KRAVETZ is interesting according to Subject, because his child is the only one in the Ukrainian mission which speaks Ukrainian. KRAVETZ is also interested in emigre youth, but has no special area of interest.
4. When asked why Subject is so interested in Ukrainian Soviet diplomats, he replied that he has his own reasons for this and that it would become evident after a while.
5. Subject wants to organize a party for some of his friends from the Ukrainian mission, he asked Source if he would be willing to come. Source replied yes.
6. Subject has given BATIUK a copy of the New York Ukrainian student publication "NEWSLETTER".
